DWARF BUSH CHERRIES

New Amazing Development

Exclusive with Bloomingdale's in New York City

69c. Each

3 for $1.98

Will bear cherries the first year. Plants are 3 years old, 2 feet high. They are easy to grow, good to eat and make delicious preserves. The bushes bear early, heavily, annually. Require little room because of their size. In addition they are highly ornamental. Their beautiful flowers in the Spring are followed by masses of large cherries which completely cover the stem.
